GROUND WATER

INDEX OF VOLUME 18, 1980

NUMBER 1, JANUARY–FEBRUARY 1980

Management Control Plan for Protecting Ground-Water Quality, by Harry E. LeGrand, pp. 2-6.
Well Grouting and Casing Temperature Increases, by R. C. Johnson, Jr., C. E. Kurt & G. F. Dunham, Jr., pp. 7-13.
Ground-Water Tracers — A Short Review, by S. N. Davis, G. M. Thompson, H. W. Bentley & G. Stiles, pp. 14-23.
Gravity Survey of a Deep Buried Valley, by Mark T. Stewart, pp. 24-30.
Jojoba: An Alternative to the Conflict Between Agricultural and Municipal Ground-Water Requirements in the Tucson Area, Arizona, by K. E. Foster & N. G. Wright, pp. 31-36.
Ground-Water Salinity Problems Related to Irrigation in the Colorado River Basin, by Mohamed T. El-Ashry, pp. 37-45.
Resistivity Investigations for Ground Water in Metamorphic Areas Near Dhanbad, India, by R. K. Verma, M. K. Rao & C. V. Rao, pp. 46-55.
Theis Parameter Evaluation from Pumping Tests by Sensitivity Analysis, by Carl D. McElwee, pp. 56-60.
Overflow Tests Analysed by Theoretical and Numerical Methods, by K. R. Rushton & K. S. Rathod, pp. 61-69.

NUMBER 2, MARCH–APRIL 1980

To Model or Not to Model — That Is the Question, by Jay H. Lehr, pp. 106-107.
Ground-Water Modeling: An Overview, by J. W. Mercer & C. R. Faust, pp. 108-115.
Influence of Regolith Properties on Migration of Septic Tank Effluent, by R. A. Rea & S. B. Upchurch, pp. 118-125.
Programmable Hand Calculator Programs for Pumping and Injection Wells: II — Constant Pumping (Injection) Rate, Single Fully Penetrating Well, Semiconfined Aquifer, by D. L. Warner & M. Gene Yow, pp. 126-133.
Computationally Efficient Polynomial Approximations Used to Program the Theis Equation, by Peter W. Huntoon, pp. 134-136.
Determination of Aquifer Parameters from Step Tests and Intermittent Pumping Data, by Y. K. Birsoy & W. K. Summers, pp. 137-146.
Approximation for Salt-Water Intrusion in Unconfined Coastal Aquifer, by B. K. Panigrahi, A. Das Gupta, & A. Arbhabhirama, pp. 147-151.
Aquifer Occurrence in the Fort Payne Formation, by Mary S. Moran, pp. 152-158.
A Comparative Study of Nitrate Levels at Three Adjacent Ground-Water Sources in a Chalk Catchment Area West of London, by E. M. Gray & M. Morgan-Jones, pp. 159-167.
Requirements of State Regulatory Agencies for Monitoring Ground-Water Quality at Waste Disposal Sites, by T. P. Clark & G. V. Sabel, pp. 168-174.

NUMBER 3, MAY–JUNE 1980

On the Need for a Greatly Expanded EPA Ground-Water Research Program, by Jay H. Lehr, pp. 206-210.
Ground-Water Modeling: Mathematical Models, by J. W. Mercer & C. R. Faust, pp. 212-227.
Use of Microcomputers in Ground-Water Basin Modeling, by Kiyoshi W. Mido, pp. 230-235.
Trace-Organics Biodegradation in Aquifer Recharge, by B. E. Rittmann, P. L. McCarty, & P. V. Roberts, pp. 236-243.
Distribution and Probable Source of Nitrate in Ground Water of Paradise Valley, Arizona, by B. A. Silver & J. R. Fielden, pp. 244-251.
Determination of the Location and Connectivity of Fractures in Metamorphic Rock with In-Hole Tracers, by I. Wendell Marine, pp. 252-261.
Methodology for Monitoring Ground Water at Uranium Solution Mines, by M. J. Humenick, L. J. Turk, & M. P. Colchin, pp. 262-273.
Well-Water Quality Changes Correlated with Well Pumping Time and Aquifer Parameters —Fresno, California, by H. I. Nightingale & W. C. Bianchi, pp. 274-280.
Estimating Transmissivity and Well Loss Constant Using Multirate Test Data from a Pumped Well, by G. Y. Nahm, pp. 281-285.
Ground-Water Management in the High Plains, by Ginia Wickersham, pp. 286-290.

NUMBER 4, JULY–AUGUST 1980

Classification of Ground-Water Studies — A Critical Need for Research and Development in the Eighties, by Harry M. Peek, pp. 326-330.
Ground-Water Geochemistry: Arsenic in Landfills, by Arthur W. Hounslow, pp. 331-333.
High Water Levels in Ground-Water Dominant Lakes — A Case Study from Northwestern Wisconsin, by M. B. Rinaldo-Lee & M. P. Anderson, pp. 334-339.
Bottled Waters — Expensive Ground Water, by J.R.J. Studlick & R. C. Bain, pp. 340-345.
Experimental Determination of Thermoplastic Casing Collapse Pressures, by R. C. Johnson, Jr., C. E. Kurt, & G. F. Dunham, Jr., pp. 346-350.
Problems of Rationally Draining the Poleyes Marshes, by Ye. G. Petrov, pp. 351-358.
The Role of Ground Water in Stream Discharges from Two Small Wetland Controlled Basins in Eastern Massachusetts, by Arnold L. O'Brien, pp. 359-365.
Details of Hydrochemical Variations in Flowing Wells, by J. M. Marsh & J. W. Lloyd, pp. 366-373.
Simulation of Salt-Water Interface Motion, by J. W. Mercer, S. P. Larson, & C. R. Faust, pp. 374-385.
Convective Heat Transfer in Selected Geologic Situations, by K. Kilty & D. S. Chapman, pp. 386-394.
Ground-Water Modeling: Numerical Models, by C. R. Faust & J. W. Mercer, pp. 395-409.

NUMBER 5, SEPTEMBER–OCTOBER 1980

Praise Where Praise Is Due, by Jay H. Lehr, pp. 430-433.
The Deccan Basalts of Maharashtra, India — Their Potential as Aquifers, by S. B. Deolankar, pp. 434-437.
Programmable Hand Calculator Programs for Pumping and Injection Wells: III — Constant Pumping (Injection) Rate, Fully Confined Aquifer, Partially Penetrating Well, by Don L. Warner & M. Gene Yow, pp. 438-443.
A Nitrogen Powered Continuous Delivery, All-Glass-Teflon Pumping System for Ground-Water Sampling from Below 10 Meters, by M. B. Tomson, S. Hutchins, J. M. King & C. H. Ward, pp. 444-446.
Computer Models in Ground-Water Exploration, by I. Remson, S. M. Gorelick, & J. F. Fliegner, pp. 447-451.
Ground-Water Use for Cooling: Associated Aquifer Temperature Changes, by M. J. Lippmann & Chin Fu Tsang, pp. 452-458.
Safe Yield in a Coastal Ground-Water Regime, by R. Mull & G. Battermann, pp. 459-463.
Investigation of Organic Contamination of Ground Water in South Brunswick Township, New Jersey, by P. H. Roux & W. F. Althoff, pp. 464-471.
Monitoring Ground-Water Contamination at a Fly Ash Disposal Site Using Surface Electrical Resistivity Methods, by R. B. Rogers & W. F. Kean, pp. 472-478.
Aquifer Response in the Ultramafic Field Area of Sukhinda Valley — Orissa (India), by I. Radhakrishna & T. Venkateswarlu, pp. 479-485.
Ground-Water Modeling: Applications, by J. W. Mercer & C. R. Faust, pp. 486-497.

NUMBER 6, NOVEMBER–DECEMBER 1980

Monitoring: The New Frontier, by Jay H. Lehr, pp. 530-531.
Modification of an Electronic Downhole Water Sampler, by Gerald E. Idler, pp. 532-535.
Control of Ground-Water Salinity, Orange County, California, by M. J. Hammer & G. Elser, pp. 536-540.
Ground-Water Information: NWWA Provides the Resources, by Jean Poland, pp. 541-543.
The Effect of Flyash Disposal on a Shallow Ground-Water System, by Douglas S. Cherkauer, pp. 544-550.
Hydraulic Properties of Coal and Related Materials, Northern Great Plains, by B. W. Rehm, G. H. Groenewold & K. A. Morin, pp. 551-561.
Pumping Test Analysis with a Handheld Calculator, by Frank A. Rayner, pp. 562-568.
Ground-Water Modeling: Recent Developments, by C. R. Faust & J. W. Mercer, pp. 569-577.
The Clogging of Shallow Discharge Wells in the Netherlands River Region, by C.G.E.M. van Beek & W. F. Kooper, pp. 578-586.
Growth of Ground-Water Mound in Response to Recharge, by N. H. Rao & P.B.S. Sarma, pp. 587-595.
Ground-Water Flow and Uranium in Colorado Plateau, by N. V. Ortiz, J. A. Ferentchak, F. G. Ethridge, H. C. Granger & D. K. Sunada, pp. 596-606.
A Comparison of Nitrogen in Shallow Ground Water from Sewered and Unsewered Areas, Nassau County, New York, from 1952 through 1976, by B. G. Katz, J. B. Lindner & S. E. Ragone, pp. 607-616.
An Evaluation of Sources of Nitrogen as Causes of Ground-Water Contamination in Nassau County, Long Island, by Keith S. Porter, pp. 617-625.
